Dear Sir/Madam,

Your refund request for 10783031 in the amount of $1,200.00 has been denied .

You were charged $100.00 too much for fee code 1202. You will receive a $100.00 refund to your D/A. The rest of the money is needed to perfect the case and move it on to the Examiner

Sincerely,

ELEANOR KURTZ

REQUEST FOR REFUND

Sir:

A Preliminary Amendment, including an amendment transmittal letter, was submitted to the PTO on 20 April 2005 with document identification information indicating that the Amendment and transmittal letter were intended for U.S. patent application 10/783,031. A copy of the transmittal letter is enclosed along with a copy of the first page of the Amendment.

The transmittal letter authorized the Commissioner for Patents to deduct a total fee of $1,200.00 from Deposit Account No. 502641 maintained by the below-named registered practitioner for excess claim charges resulting from the Amendment. The $1,200.00 fee, consisting of $800.00 for Fee Code 1202 and $400.00 for Fee Code 1201, was deducted from Deposit Account 502641 on 22 April 2005 as shown by the April 2005 PTO statement for Deposit Account 502641. A copy of the April 2005 PTO statement for Deposit Account 502641 is enclosed with information not relevant to the $1,200.00 fee blanked out.

As is clear from the remainder of the document identification information on the Amendment and transmittal letter, they were intended for U.S. patent application 10/780,031 rather than U.S. application 10/783,031. Neither the Amendment nor transmittal letter appears to have reached the PTO file for application 10/780,031. In particular, neither document currently appears in the image file wrapper of the PTO file for application 10/780,031.

Corrected versions of the Amendment and transmittal letter are being submitted in application 10/780,031 with authorization for the Commissioner for Patents to charge $1,200.00 to Deposit Account 502641 for the same excess claim charges that the Commissioner for Patents charged to Deposit Account 502641 for the original incorrectly identified version of the Amendment and transmittal letter.

The below-named practitioner is concurrently submitting a request to have the PTO expunge the Amendment and transmittal letter from the PTO file of application 10/783,031 and/or any other PTO file in which these documents do not belong. Inasmuch as the original Amendment and transmittal letter were not meant for application 10/783,031, the below-named practitioner respectfully requests that the $1,200.00 charged to Deposit Account 502641 for the original version of the Amendment and transmittal letter be refunded to Deposit Account 502641.

Please telephone the below-named practitioner at 650-964-9767 if there are any questions with regard to this refund request.

Respectfully submitted,

Ronald J. Meetin
